COMMITTEE REPORTS

DCM REPORT

Hello District 23 AA's:

Another month has passed, and I am still trying to make a visit to all of you, although I was unable to make any visits in September.

Hopefully, I will see more of you in October.

Just a reminder, please do not forget the Anonymity Workshop on the October 10. If you are able to bring a snack or fruit to share, that would be great! We could also use some bottled water for those that don't drink coffee. I'm looking forward to a good turnout that day and a chance to fellowship with all of you.

Plans are moving forward for the workshop that we are hosting at the end of October for the professional community. We have received several pre-registrations and are looking forward to networking and providing information about AA to those professionals who work in the field of alcoholism.

Remember, that the purpose of the district is to serve the home groups. Should your groups have any suggestions on workshop topics please let me know.

If you are interested in district service, please talk to me. We have plenty of open positions and would love to have you.

In love and service,

Margie

Happy Halloween,
Margie S.

H & I

Dear AA Friends,

The H&I Committee can always use volunteers. The Juvenile Detention Center is in need of young volunteers to take to meetings in on Sundays 2 times a month. Also, we are looking for alternate committee members for H&I.

If you are interested in volunteering at any of our various meetings.

Please contact me or any other H&I Committee member.

Thanks,

Steve B.
H&I Chairperson

PI/CPC

Hello District 23,

It's that time of month again! (No, not that time) It is good to be of service here in our district. Coming up this month is our Anonymity Workshop and our CPC event. I'm excited! Anonymity is a very important concept that many of us don't understand very well. Too much anonymity? Too little? And how on earth do you pronounce it? Just kidding – although we often struggle with it on many levels.

I am also happy to be taking part in our CPC event coming up on Wednesday, October 21. We will be doing a presentation to local professional people that come in contact with practicing alcoholics in the course of their business. Although almost everyone has heard of AA these days, many folks don't really know exactly what we do. I am looking forward to this – it is a great opportunity to see how CPC works. I will have a report for you next month.

AA Hugs,

Lisa V.
